

END OF GODWEB'S TOURNEY

Cornelius Ferguson Won the Big Handicap, Killing Fifteen Straight.

His Little Son, Too, Again Proved Himself an Expert and Shared in the Spoils.

ANNIE OAKLEY NOT AT HER BEST.

nd the Little Western Woman Retired in the Fourteenth Round—The Tournament Voted a Success, and Will Be Repeated Next Year.

The Ferguson family, which for so many years have been held to own that portion of the earth about New Utrecht politically, and otherwise, added to their possessions yesterday by taking out a small mortgage on the Columbus Club preserves and prizes at Baychester, N. Y. Little thirteen-year-old "Conny" Ferguson faced the traps and grunted his birds with all the sang froid of a Huntington veteran. He changed hands for money in one event, and although in the Columbus handicap he killed but two less than his father, he received a portion of fourth money with about ten others. His expert parent, "Cornell" Ferguson, Jr., was the star winner of the day, capturing as he did the main event by killing fifteen straight, with a $150 award. It was the only event of the four days' tourney which was won outright. He also divided first money with the other leaders in the Electric Trap Sweepstakes.

Miss Annie Oakley, the clever little woman sharpshooter, was another entry of the day. Her health was not of the best, and she participated in the big handicap only, but was forced to withdraw after the fourteenth round, having killed nine. In all twenty-eight men entered for the handicap and the result was in no way one of the previous events of the four days' contest—good shooting, many ties and consequent small divisions of purses.

THIRTEEN BATTLES.
